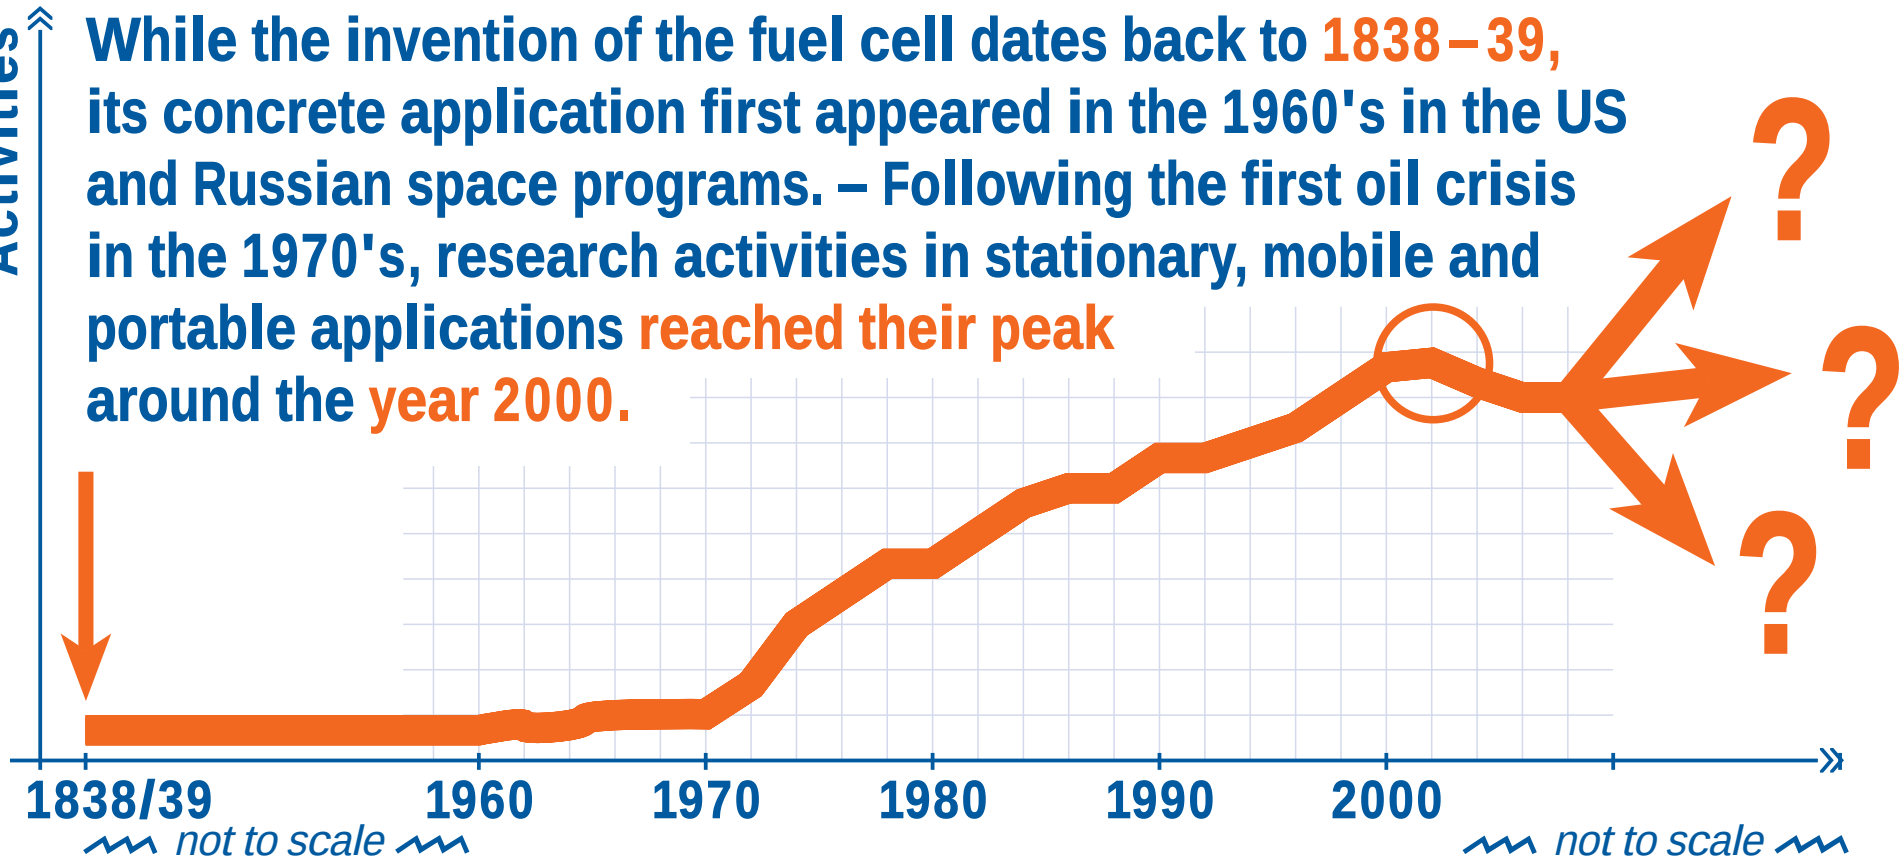
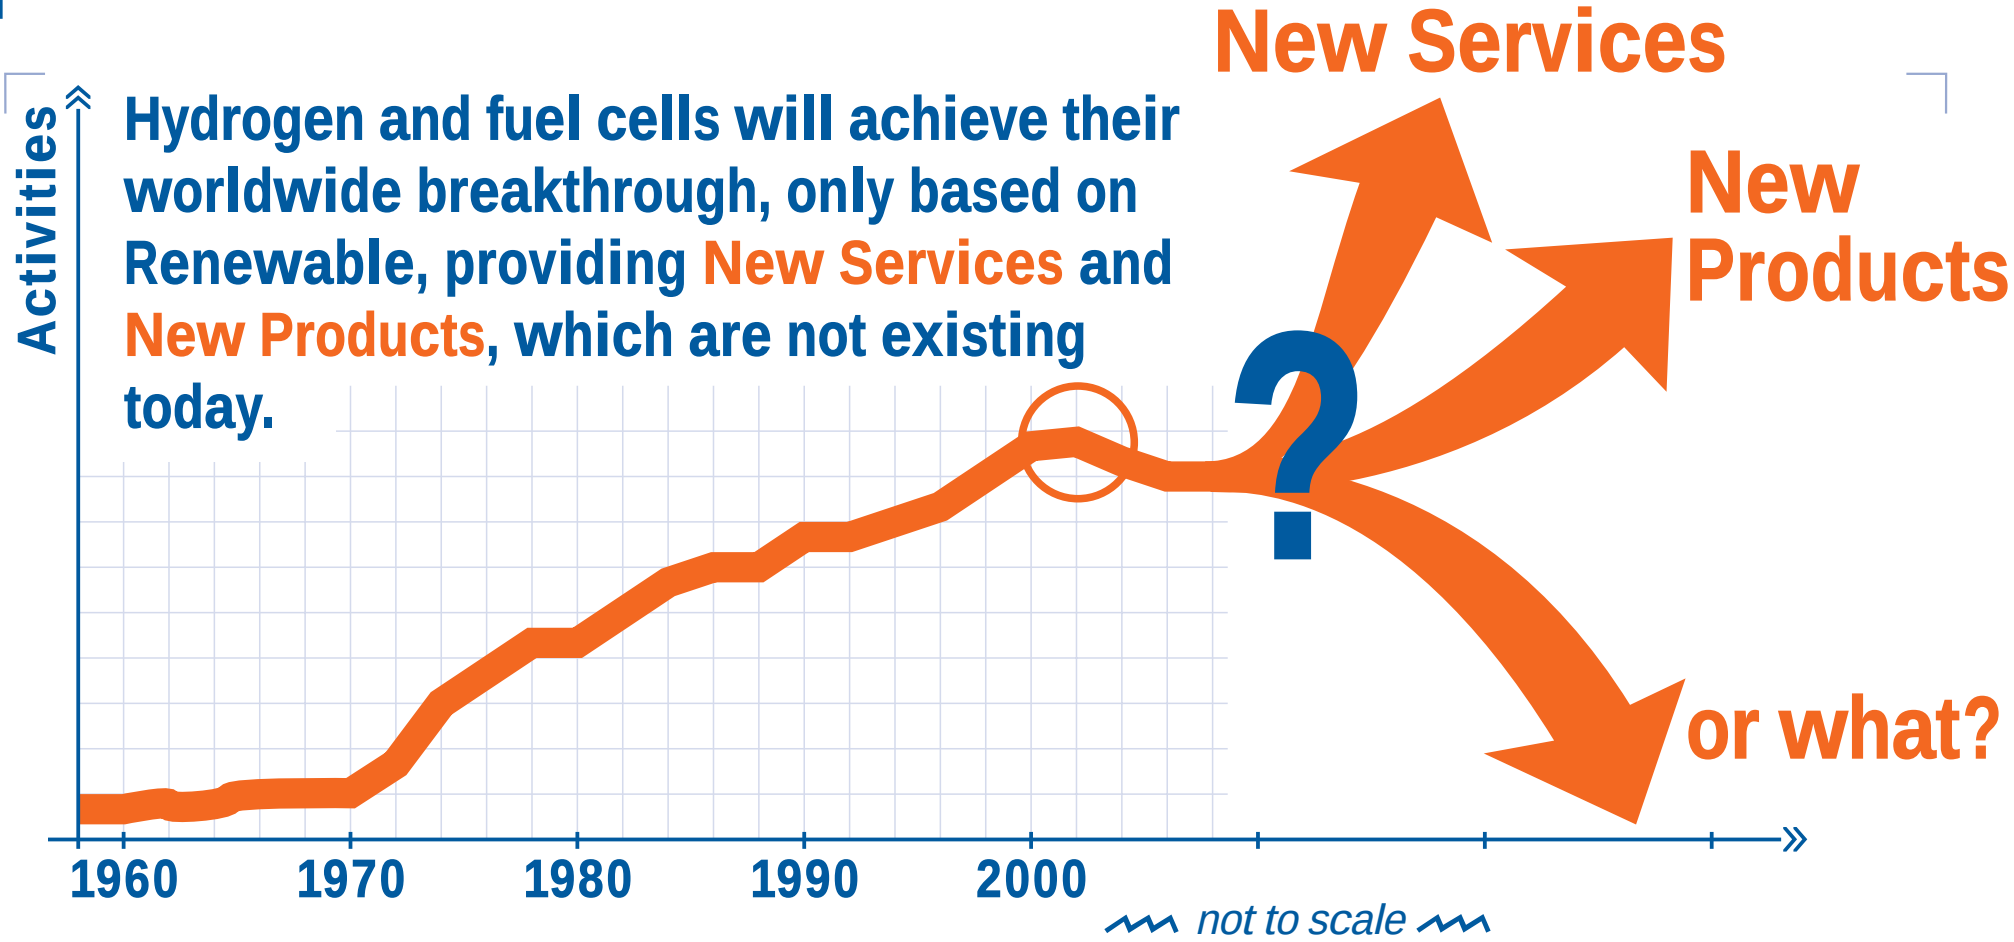
Worldwide breakthrough for Hydrogen + Fuel Cells

While the invention of the fuel cell dates back to 1838 – 39, its concrete application first appeared in the 1960's in the US and Russian space programs. – Following the first oil crisis in the 1970's, research activities in stationary, mobile and portable applications reached their peak around the year 2000.



Source: Own Research

Worldwide breakthrough for Hydrogen + Fuel Cells



Source: Own Research

EVERS